

THE TENTH STATION

“JESUS, REMEMBER ME”

Jesus was crucified between two thieves – in the midst of sinful humanity. Yet even amongst thieves He found goodness. While one thief could not see beyond his own suffering, the other perceived Jesus' innocence, and prayed that he might see the Kingdom.

There are times when we have been expecting nothing good, and yet goodness has appeared and surprised us. We continue to believe in goodness, even in the most adverse and punishing of circumstances. The God of all goodness invites us to be a presence for good, wherever we are.

Let us pray for all those who find themselves on the wrong side of the law and pray that justice and mercy will be shown to them, that they may repent of what they have done and that they may work for the good of their victims.
